

BJ

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong Lyricist Sam Lau Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

Love or lust can keep you in a state of joy and delight.

BJ has arrived, opening up a new world.

Love or lust can lift you out of pain and sorrow.

BJ has arrived, rewriting the tired old tale.

BJ turns everything around and creates surprise.

BJ makes the impossible possible and puts all nonsense to rest.

Love or lust can help you leap beyond life and death.

BJ has arrived, revel in your sensations everyday!

Make all your reservations—for food, for fun, and stunning looks.

You get the beauty, you set the features, you rate it all you want.

It's your schedule, your memos and your budget.

It's your internet and your search for events.

Link it to your phone, your speakers, it's your perfect butler too.

You can use it together, connecting to boost passion, switching accounts and playing around.

And if you are scared your secrets will be exposed, set your password to the highest level.

Simplified, clear: it handles everything in time, without delay.

It stands for perfection, impossible to fool.

Get yours quick! Don't hesitate!

Prices are so good it can undercut the whole market.

Will you still love me and hug me until the end of the day?

Will we meet the whales together in the vast ocean?

It can speak clearly in every context, bridging all worldly knowledge.

Picking up guys is so hard, girls are such a hassle.

How can I make them think I'm their one and only true love?

It will guide your plans, guide your fun—don't worry, nothing will trouble you.

Yesterday we bickered and fought, emotions at an all time high.

Will BJ help us find a release?

Whether it's the right or wrong ending, at least you can have a soft goodbye.

There's always some mistakes, some imperfections—a bit clumsy, a bit slow, a bit lacking in elaborate schemes that allows me to roam around guilt-free.

Upgrade, be quick! Don't hesitate!

You can play everyday until the world is fooled.

Sweet exchanges, sweet to the core,
To help you bloom in ecstasy (A pleasure the world doesn't know).
Debaucheries and wild indulgences, beasts unleashed.
Making that moment even more thrilling (A pleasure the world doesn't know).
There's more ways to play; I want to sweat it out with you.
Elevate from the beginners' aesthetic.

Love or lust can bring you to a new era.
BJ has arrived, hand in hand we leap to love's truth, goodness, and beauty.
What a win!

Once, every day you feared saying too much and making mistakes.
From now on, BJ will speak up and help.
Once, you only had time for a greeting before getting straight to work.
From now on, the whole family is happy and worry-free.

They say, remember! One device for each person.
From now on, there's a way to stay far from bad temper.

Lifetime value, come rain or shine.
Expert-certified, fully verified.

Willing to have a son or daughter, anything to protect the family;
Choosing not to have him, not to have her, then later regretting letting go—just make sure to protect yourself.

Utterly seductive!

Love or lust can keep you in a state of joy and delight.
BJ has arrived, opening up a new world.
Love or lust can lift you out of pain and sorrow.
BJ has arrived, rewriting the tired old tale.

BJ turns everything around and creates surprise.
BJ makes the impossible possible and puts all nonsense to rest.

Love or lust can help you leap beyond life and death.
BJ has arrived, rewriting your life's story, staying by your side day and night.
Step into a new meaning, starting right now.
Create a beautiful new adventure together!

Lil' JJ Sees the Big, Wide World

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong   Lyricist Sam Lau   Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

Take it easy, let's talk about the news.
Listen closely—this isn't childish stuff.
Fine wine opened, pouring freely,
Hammered through the night, planning to chat with fans.

To flirt with girls? Easier said than done.
Chasing fame? Utterly pointless.
He's so good at talking about his favourite items.
Every episode, someone gets lucky.

AV is my favorite thing, but every day the wires get crossed and it won't turn on.
Every time Aoi jumps into the pool,
a little birdie squirts around too!

Lil' JJ—an ordinary name.
Lil' JJ—an extraordinary fate.
Leave a few comments, you make the deal.
Lil' JJ (So tiny!) sees the big, wide world.

Three as One

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong Lyricist Sam Lau Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

Alex Never one to let my guard down and casually lean on help,
I'd rather stand in the chaos,
And allow the lightheartedness to remain inside my heart.
Change is constant, but not always comfortable.
It seemed like a dead end, but look back and you'll see a lovely road.
Giving us courage to break through every barrier.

Robin Everyone fears rumors and the troubles that follow.
Jamie They don't care about their regrets or values, they follow blindly.
Robin Push away consciousness.
Jamie Apply suppression.
Robin You can only face your walls.
Jamie Miss the chance to respond.
Robin & Jamie To decide between reality and fantasy, how love unfolds.

Alex I'm willing to follow my pace, revealing the authentic plot.
To honestly confess this so-called crime the world fixates on.
Robin Life is too short,
Jamie To waste away in haste.
Alex Three hearts echo as one,
Jamie Warming up in secret.
All three Sweet nothings floating in the air, brushing your face cozily.

Jamie The sunset dawns on our encounter,
Alex Sparking up love immediately.
Robin Let this night breeze keep us company, sweetly playing along.
Alex Confessing love thrice without fail,
Jamie Even if the affection is worn with time.
Alex There's no "afterwards" in my heart,
Robin when I'm hand in hand with you.
Alex The moment our eyes meet,
Jamie I savor even when I'm shy.
All three To enjoy a romantic day together is all I need.

Jamie Daylight glimmers on my body.
Alex And reflects the horizons of our love.
Robin Gathering scorching warmth, no more inhibitions.
Alex The honeyed words on our tongue,
Jamie shower us with affirmation.
Alex Three interconnected.
Jamie Not letting go, morning or night.
Alex Love never halting.
Robin Will not be washed away by time.
Alex Promise to stay with you until we're old and grey.

Jamie & Robin      Travelling across the universe.
All three            Everything can be ours.
Alex                  Remember,
                            hold onto beauty,
                            let it live forever in our hearts.

The Only Child's Radiance

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong    Lyricists Sam Lau, Keith Wong    Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

George      Why don't I know how to respond, I even wish to pause,
                  I close my eyes to comprehend, to get to the root of it all.
                  After all, deep down I hold respect—how dare I dare to defy this commitment?
                  The truth is complex, how do I articulate the nuance?

                  I wish I could hear it from the start, to go back and forth with you,
                  Then to let destiny decide, and to leave its mark.
                  Wandering through unfamiliar corners,
                  Never once imagined I'd be singing a love song.
                  This silence has resided in my heart for long, I hear no pain.

                  Sweet, passionate love comes in a thousand shades,
                  Yet I'm helplessly numb, lacking imagination.
                  Too practiced in traversing beneath the shadows,
                  Calmly at ease, settling myself within four walls.

                  Tears can't escape the cold dam.
                  Knowing full well the iceberg will never melt,
                  Do I keep pretending or climb alone?
                  Peacefully solo, graceful and grand.

                  Bearing the pressure of the unknown,
                  Just to make the external whole.
                  If I can hold onto my true self inside this dilemma,
                  Perhaps I would be happier.

                  Should I start embracing worldly views?
                  The brilliance of the rest of my life may fade into twilight.
                  Who can understand someone as mundane as me?
                  At peace and alone, I can still glow.

                  When the glorious journey comes to an end,
                  Even at farewell, I'll stand alone.
                  After the curtain falls, another story is told,
                  I just want it to be a warm one.
                  To share infinite secrets and heartfelt words.

A Pretence of Love

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong Lyricist Sam Lau Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

Abigail Torn and pained, flustered and lost,
Listening to the sways within the heart.
Morals buried, beasts depraved,
Obscuring bottomless indulgence.
Bondage manipulated; Debaucheries and wild indulgences,
The last glow of humanity stands defenseless.
The tides crest, and ebb away in desolation,
The secret formula to human desire.

How could I ever have imagined such an encounter?
I don't need to see the truth; my mind still receives it.
My limbs are frozen, fear cutting my life short.
This forged affection—its traces make me tremble.

The mundane days crack open,
Revealing a marriage stuffed cruelly with excuses.
How can I be rescued?
Is there a future after this?

Thick and soft, delicate and thin as silk,
Lips and tongues entwine in chaotic battle.
The coquette charms, the sensual moans,
They seductively dissolve all innocence.

Abigail & Eric Insatiably addicted, wholly offering up submission,
Excreting the heat for the rest of our lives.
Crossing the red line, plunging into brokenness,
Coy as a snarling fairytale.

Abigail How could I ever have imagined such an encounter?
I don't need to see the truth; my mind still receives it.
My limbs are frozen, fear cutting my life short.
This forged affection—its traces make me tremble.

The mundane days crack open,
Revealing a marriage stuffed cruelly with excuses.
How can I be rescued?
Is there a future after this?

Hold me, carry me,
Help me escape this turmoil.
There is no fault in your embrace, but how can I
So casually let such bitter fruit grow?

My heart wants release, yet my body is ensnared.
How do I place this only ray of dawn?

Gazing up from within the darkness,
Only I remain, going mad.
Only I remain, going mad.

Sustained Intercourse

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong Lyricist Sam Lau Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

- BJ Sex is heat and light and desire and connection. (Feeling horny?)
Discovering that a story has many endings. (Never encountered it, how can I speak up?)
Sex is beautiful, gorgeous, you can never tire of the prettiness. (Like a pageant?)
No need to bemoan your too short fantasies. (How can I face this desire?)
- Jayden You've seen right through me long ago. (The more shy you are,)
I really am unnerved. (The more you must accept.)
Does this count as being understood? (The more naked the truth is,)
(The more you have to face it.)
I don't want to be sold short. (Progress slowly,)
I only know how to digest it alone. (Farewell subtly.)
It never ends—how do I find joy and break through to a new day?
- Jayden Come seek your body's relief and unleash your true self.
Like singing joyfully in a dark room.
Don't suppress the awakening of touch, dive into the thrill.
In an instant, I am invincible.
This world is too breathtaking—at last I can see it clearly.
- BJ Sex and love is full of trials, if you are willing and free (Sure.)
Creating pleasure isn't so complicated. (Turns out I used to be so cautious with my words and actions.)
Sex or love, there's no ranking or order to contradict. (So?)
If you choose wrong, no need to retreat backwards. (Looking forward to testing everything.)

Jayden I'm no longer afraid of being seen through. (The more you let go,
My mindset seems stronger. (You see through what's tired and old.)
Does this count as courage? (The more eager you are,
(Answer more directly—there's no gap left.)
Not afraid to be sold short. (Watching the progress,)
Unwilling to quietly sink anymore. (Already saying goodbye.)
Perfectly reasonable, seize the joy in time; break through to a new day.

BJ Match with the best fighters,
Match until one I'm one against many.
Pair up so that even mistakes aren't wasted.
Go with the flow, targeting a wide scope.
Couples split to watch from afar, fight up close.
Competition armed with iron guns and fierce cannons.
Walking alone, blazing your own trail.
Passionately, with pure abandon.

Jayden Come seek your body's relief and unleash your true self.
Like singing joyfully in a dark room.
Don't suppress the awakening of touch, dive into the thrill.
In an instant, unstoppable, I enter a new realm.
Everything can now be seen clearly.

BJ La la la... La la la... La la la...

Jayden Please forget the sensible with me,
Stay forever intoxicated with me.
Don't worry about the skies crashing down,
Night and day, we screw till our legs give out.
With reason or without, let's have a date first.
Until I can't go on.

It's the End of the World!

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong Lyricist Sam Lau Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

It's the end of the world!

Insane! Spouting nonsense! Are you crazy?
One after another, all telling lies! Just babbling rubbish!
What the hell are you on about? I've got to go to work!

Have mercy! It's my fault. How miserable!
What now? There's still so much left to do! My mortgage!
I beg You, save us all. Show us extra mercy!

Help!

The Final Words

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong Lyricist Sam Lau Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

Weeping till the heart is drained,
All for a fleeting moment, as if letting go, without a care.
If tomorrow everything is lost,
Even warnings would be in vain—we will be in deep slumber soon.

If blame must be placed, everyone will be named,
I only wish to hold on tight right now without fear.
How rare it is to still gather joyfully amidst the storm.
I only wish to meet you again in the next life.

Forgive my past days when I didn't know how to connect.
Our fate cut short, life and death parts us—reunion now an issue.
How often can life intersect? How many memories can last?
Who knew that loving each other was the most precious thing of all?

Let us hope—through deep sorrow, do not panic.
Perhaps tonight is something beautiful, a ray of dawn.
Growth is full of twists and turns, let's not miss even the bumps in the road.
Keep looking ahead, and you will surely find life's answer.

I never imagined my heart would open wide, confessing with honesty.
I hadn't yet cared to look closely at the dawning sunset.
How many scars have been left? Why not let it sit gently?
I still long to open my arms wide and embrace it all,
No care in the world.

Smile and listen to the words in our heart.
Open your eyes wide and crystallise this beautiful view.
The colourful songbirds and wild geese in the sky—
Perhaps it's never too late to meet,
and unexpected to part so soon.
Treasure the gatherings and farewells along the journey.

Infinite Beauty

Composer/Arranger Keith Wong Lyricist Sam Lau Lyrics Translator Avery Wong

Love and lust accompanies you from life to death.
Joy and grief, love and hate, weave together heaven and earth.
Love or lust, it has no logic—how can reason ever compare?
Gain and loss, holding on and letting go, a cycle of abstract grace.

No right or wrong to your emotions, detached from fault or virtue.
The shock and wonder of humanity is impenetrable.

Love or lust, infinite beauty, a chance to grow.
Causes and consequences will come in its time.
A life holds countless stories, beyond what's right or wrong.
Behind every single breath lies richness and depth.
Both the bitter and the sweet are beautiful.
